EXPLANATION, CONSIDERATION AND REASONS FOR THE ADDITION OF BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

The Company as a leading heavy equipment distributor in Indonesia has developed UT Connect which was initially designed to facilitate and expedite interactions between existing customers and UT. The UT Connect application range includes (i) online spare parts ordering, (ii) monitoring the condition of heavy equipment, and (iii) customer communication services through UT Call agents to assist customers in submitting inquiries, complaints, or requests for technical support.

In accordance with the Company's commitment to continuously comply with the applicable laws and regulations, including the issuance of Permendag No. 31/2023, in order to carry out online retail business activities, including spare part ordering, it is necessary to use KBLI 63122. Additionally, the Company needs to obtain a risk-based business license issued by the Ministry of Investment and Downstream Industry Coordinating Board.

By Addition of Business Activities, the Company is expected to realize its vision and maintain the sustainability of its business operations, providing optimal support to all customers, Shareholders, and other stakeholders.

SUMMARY OF THE APPRAISAL REPORT

The Company has appointed KJPP BDR as an independent appraiser registered with the Ministry of Finance to provide an opinion regarding the Company's plan for the Addition of Business Activities. The Appraisal Partner responsible for preparing the feasibility study report on the addition of business activities is Bimo Suryo Atmaji, S.E., M.Ec.Dev. The following is the summary of the Feasibility Study Report of the Company for the Addition of Business Activities No. 00101/2.0103-00/BS/05/0121/1/III/2025 dated 11 March 2025 (“Feasibility Study Report”).

1. Purpose and Objectives of Feasibility Study

The objective of the feasibility study is to provide an assessment of the feasibility of the Addition of Business Activities plan of the Company in order to comply with POJK 17/2020.

2. Feasibility Study Object

The object of the Feasibility Study Report is a feasibility study of the plan for the Addition of Business Activities, namely the addition of business fields in accordance with the KBLI as follows:

Addition of Business Activities Plan with code 63122 for Web Portal and/or Digital Platform for Commercial Purposes of UT Connect application for ordering spare parts, care and maintenance of heavy equipment and monitoring heavy equipment performance for the customers of the Company.

3. Assumptions and Limiting Conditions

The assumption and the specific assumptions used in the assignment are the reasonable and relevant specific assumption considering the purpose for which the Feasibility Study Report is required. The specific assumption is to those that differ from facts as of the date of the Feasibility Study Report or assumptions that a limited number of market participants would not make in a transaction on that date. Such assumptions are often used to illustrate the potential impact of a particular situation on value. In conducting the assignment, KJPP BDR applies assumptions that are reasonably accepted as facts within the context of the Addition of Business Activities of the Company.

Subsequently, the limiting conditions of the Feasibility Study Report are as follows:

1. KJPP BDR assumes and relies on the accuracy, reliability, and completeness of all financial information and other information provided to KJPP BDR by the Company or publicly available which is essentially true, complete, and not misleading, and KJPP BDR is not responsible for conducting an independent verification of such information. KJPP BDR also relies on assurances from the management of the Company that they are not aware of any facts that would render the information provided to KJPP BDR incomplete or misleading.
2. Any changes to the data and information can materially affect the final opinion of KJPP BDR. Therefore, KJPP BDR is not responsible for changes in the conclusions of the KJPP BDR feasibility study due to changes in the data and information.

3. KJPP BDR conducted an interview with the management of the Company. In addition, KJPP BDR does not provide opinions on the tax implication of the results of this Feasibility Study Report.
4. The work of KJPP BDR related to this feasibility study does not constitute and cannot be interpreted in any form as a review or audit or implementation of procedures on financial information.
5. The KJPP BDR Report is prepared based on the request from the Company which is used solely to assist the Company in need of an opinion from an independent party.
6. The Feasibility Study Report constitutes a non-disclaimer opinion.
7. The Company declares that all material information regarding the feasibility study assignment has been fully disclosed to KJPP BDR and there are no omissions of important facts.

4. Feasibility Study Approach and Methodology

In preparing this feasibility study, KJPP BDR employs three methods, namely (i) data collection and review method, (ii) literature study method, and (iii) field observation method.

a. Data Collection and Review

The data used consists of primary data, secondary data and external data. These data are used and processed into useful information for decision making.

- 1) Primary data are obtained from survey results at project sites, developments in surrounding environment, etc.
- 2) Secondary data utilized by KJPP BDR includes data from management of the Company, especially technical, financial, and management data.
- 3) External data, especially marketing, social and economic data, are sourced from association organizations, data presenting companies and relevant parties.

b. Literature Study

It can be in the form of a literature study of journals and research data from both the government and private sector or agencies/organizations, brochures that support the preparation of this feasibility study, concerning issues of rest area and service business activities, and the management patterns applied in this business.

c. Interview and Inspection

KJPP BDR conducted interviews and discussions on 7 February 2025 until 14 February 2025 with the Company. It was done to collect some information and other supporting documents related to the business valuation assigned to KJPP BDR.

5. Summary of Feasibility Analysis

The analysis of the legal aspect indicates that currently UT Connect application has a license from the Ministry of Communication and Information of the Republic of Indonesia and has registered Intellectual Property Rights at the Directorate General of Intellectual Property of the MOLHR. However, with the issuance of Permendag No. 31/2023, to conduct online retail business, including online spare parts ordering through UT Connect, the Company needs to add KBLI code 63122 to its Article of Associations and Business Identification Number of the Company to obtain a risk-based business license issued by the Ministry of Investment and Downstream Industry Coordinating Board.

The analysis of the economic aspect indicates that the economic condition in Indonesia remains relatively stable, as evidenced by the economic growth in the fourth quarter of 2024, which achieved a growth rate of 5.03% year-on-year (yoy). Additionally, the inflation rate in the fourth quarter of 2024 was maintained at a low 1.57% year-on-year, within the target range of 2.5%±1%.

The analysis of the market aspect shows that overall, the heavy equipment industry in Indonesia presents a positive outlook, with growth driven by various industrial sectors. The size of Indonesia's construction equipment market is estimated to reach USD4.24 billion in 2025 and is expected to achieve USD6.04 billion by 2030, with a CAGR of 7.32% during the forecast period (2025-2030). According to estimation, the construction and mining equipment industry in Indonesia will be worth USD431 million in 2025, with the majority of contributions coming from excavators (24%).

The analysis of the management aspect shows that Company can develop the UT Connect application by having experts in the field of technology and information who can develop and innovate for the UT Connect application. The experts who are deployed to develop and make innovation for UT Connect Application consist of up to 90 (ninety) individuals, with the expertise as follows Developer, Quality Assurance, Technical Lead, Business Analyst, Program Manager, Product Owner, Technical Lead Head, Digital Marketing Head, SEO Consulting, Marketing, SEO Specialist, CRM Specialist, Social Media Specialist dan COP + WHS.

The analysis of the technical aspect indicates that the Company is capable of managing customer service operations through several developments from the existing business units of the Company.

The resources owned by the Company come from several sources, namely: (1) working capital resources; (2) capital expenditure resources; and (3) human resources, as outlined by the Company in the Summary of the Feasibility Study Report on page 48, as stated in this Disclosure of Information. The business process for the Company's new business activity involves conducting sales operations as routinely performed, with the additional support of an electronic trading system

The analysis of the business model aspect indicates that the Company possesses a competitive advantage in the UT Connect application, demonstrates the ability of the Company to create added value, and effectively mitigates competitive risks. Therefore, the Company believes that the business activity will be sustainable

The analysis of the financial aspect from the Net Present Value (NPV) calculation, using a discount rate of 11.42%, shows that the NPV value with a projection of net cash flows over the last 9 years is Rp14,783,916,585. The calculations indicate that the project's Internal Rate of Return (IRR) from the UT Connect application is 25.07%, which is significantly higher than the discount rate of 11.42%. Based on the Payback Period calculation, the business activities through the UT Connect application require 3 years to recoup the investment and development plan amounting to Rp12,281,956,000. According to calculations by KJPP BDR, the Profitability Index of the investment and development plan is 2.20.

6. Opinion on the Feasibility of Business Activity Changes

Based on studies, evaluations, financial analyses and other projections, under the condition that the predetermined assumptions are met, it can be concluded that the plan for the Addition of Business Activities to be implemented by the Company is feasible.

AVAILABILITY OF EXPERTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE PLAN FOR THE ADDITION OF BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

In connection with the plan for the Addition of Business Activities, the Company has currently prepared as many as 90 (ninety) persons who possess the necessary capacity and experience to support the Addition of Business Activities, in which the workforce involved in this Plan for the Addition of Business Activities consists of experts who are already employed by the Company, thus no additional costs will be incurred by the Company in recruiting new experts. The details of the experts as mentioned in this section are as follows:
